Overview:

Would you like to help your students build strong financial futures? Are easy-to-use lessons and materials that introduce the nuts and bolts of personal finance something you're looking for? Do you need creative and innovative ways for teaching the Indiana Academic Standards, particularly the new Personal Finance requirements? Join us for Financing Your Future—a high school teacher workshop showcasing a “classroom-friendly” DVD for teaching economic concepts and personal finance strategies. The DVD includes five 15 minute video segments with three accompanying lesson plans for each video, along with a glossary of easy-to-understand terms and a bank of test questions.

Get a Financial Life (video 1):

Introduces basic personal finance terms and concepts and focuses on issues of “wealth building” and “spending less than one earns.”

- Lesson 1.1: What Is a Financial Life?
Lesson 1.2: Setting Financial Goals
Lesson 1.3: Spend Less than You Earn

Get Smart (video 2):

Illustrates how decisions have consequences and the trade-offs and opportunity costs of financial decisions, big and small.

- Lesson 2.1: Why Can't I Have Everything I Want?
Lesson 2.2: Decisions about My Human Capital – What Is It and How Do I Get Some?
Lesson 2.3: Learning Is a Lifetime Investment – Constructing a Career Roadmap

Get Banked (video 3):

Addresses the benefits of banking and the downside of ignoring this important relationship.

- Lesson 3.1: Why Keep Your Money in a Bank?
Lesson 3.2: The Costs and Benefits of Being Banked
Lesson 3.3: Check, Charge, Debit Card?

Get the Credit You Deserve (video 4):

Provides a real-life introduction to credit and debt and how wise choices with credit can improve financial stability.

- Lesson 4.1: Make Credit Work for You
Lesson 4.2: Credit-Savvy
Lesson 4.3: The Most Important Grade You'll Ever Earn

Get a Financial Plan (video 5):

Discusses the significance of having a sound financial plan, including investing and the risks and rewards associated with it.

- Lesson 5.1: Why Should I Pay Myself First?
Lesson 5.2: How to Create a Financial Plan
Lesson 5.3: Risks and Rewards?

In addition to the DVD, each participant will receive poster sets on: Interest, Personal Finance, and Financial Literacy. These colorful poster sets target saving, investing, good interest vs. bad interest, and smart money management.

This professional development workshop is perfect for family and consumer science, math, business education, personal finance, and economics teachers! And it's a great deal! Sign up today!

Proof of participation for points toward Indiana Professional Development will be provided.
