

November 28, 2018

8:30 a.m.—2:30 p.m. (ET)

UNDERSTANDING FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY

A professional development workshop for middle and high school teachers of US History, Government or Economics

Curriculum Training

The issues surrounding the federal budget, national debt, and budget deficit are complex, but not beyond the reach of middle and high school students. You're invited to a full-day workshop on Understanding Fiscal Responsibility, a curriculum that uses essential dilemmas to help students focus on current fiscal issues such as the national debt, budget deficit, national security, Social Security, and current national policy issues.

Sign-up today for this engaging session!

Register here, or visit the ICEE website (www.econed-in.org).

Understanding Fiscal Responsibility

Still have questions? Contact us!

Indiana Council for Economic Education
Shelly Surber: surber@purdue.edu / 765-494-8541

IU Southeast Center for Economic Education
Dr. Johnny Alse: jalse@ius.edu / 812-941-2520

This workshop and the accompanying materials are made available to teachers through the generous support of the Peter G. Peterson Foundation and the Council for Economic Education.

This workshop is free for teachers to attend.

You will receive:

- Ready to use classroom lessons
- 6 Professional Growth Points
- Lunch
- A limited number of substitute teacher reimbursements are available for Indiana teachers.

Workshop details

- Date: Nov. 28, 2018
- Time: 8:30 am – 2:30 pm (ET)
- Location: IU Southeast, New Albany, IN