

June 18-19, 2019

Smart Indiana Economic Education & Financial Literacy Conference

presented by the Indiana Council for Economic Education

Learn about activities, lessons, and programs for K-12 classrooms
Embassy Suites by Hilton in Noblesville

Motivating Students, Supporting Teachers

The 2019 Smart Indiana Conference is a must attend for teachers in all grade levels! We promise a great experience and opportunities to discover activities that you can use in your classroom.

Featured Conference Sessions:

Conference sessions and workshops provide engaging lessons where you will learn about effective teaching methods, best practices, curriculum integration strategies, and instructional resources.

- Effective and ways to teach fundamental personal finance and economic concepts.
- Connections across the curriculum including language arts and math lessons.
- Learn how to bring economics and personal finance alive through literature and stories.
- How to use technology to bridge concepts across economic curriculum.

What You Get:

- Free lessons, activities, and materials for your classroom.
- Professional Growth Points.
- Topics aligned with your instructional needs!
- Meals will be provided.

The Cost:

- Registration is $75 for one day or $85 for both days. ($200 value).
- Register at www.smartindiana.org

Feedback from Teachers

“Very, very good sessions. Exciting, engaging, and practical. Awesome resources given to attendees. Great exercises to use in my class!”

“Best PD I have ever had!”

Smart Indiana Summer Conference

Teachers from across the state will come together again at the 2019 Smart Indiana Conference in Indianapolis

Conference Highlights

Day 1 sessions includes a tour of a Central Indiana manufacturing facility

Connect with other teachers at our Top Golf outing (after sessions on June 19th).

REGISTER TODAY

www.smartindiana.org

Smart Indiana Economic and Financial Literacy Conference

June 18-19, 2019

at the

Embassy Suites by Hilton
Noblesville